Dear Colleagues:

We are writing to announce and formally invite you to serve as founding members of the Aggie Square Partnership Advisory Council. The initial membership of the Council will include:

Regional elected officials (or their designated staff representatives):

Doris Matsui, U.S. Congresswoman

Kristin Lagattuta, Vice Chair, UC Davis Division of the Academic Senate

Tom Nesbitt, Interim Vice Chancellor of Human Health Sciences
Kelly Ratliff, Vice Chancellor of Finance, Operations and Administration

Mabel Salon, Interim Lead of Government and Community Relations
Bob Segar, Associate Vice Chancellor and Lead Aggie Square Planner
Mike Sweeney, Interim Chief Campus Counsel
Dana Topousis, Chief Marketing and Communications Officer

The group's primary charge will be to engage in discussions and offer advice as we move through the planning stages of Aggie Square, and to begin to develop what may be one of Sacramento's most exciting and productive economic and community development projects. We expect Aggie Square to be a vital, dynamic and impactful creation. As fully envisioned, the project will generate new job growth and new businesses, and we will actively engage the surrounding community in pursuit of mutually beneficial outcomes for the university, local neighborhoods, and the greater Sacramento region.

UC Davis Associate Chancellor Karl Engelbach and City of Sacramento Chief Innovation Officer Louis Stewart will be responsible for coordinating the Council's meetings. We anticipate the Advisory Council will meet every six to eight weeks, so UC Davis and City staff can provide updates on progress to date and you can share insights and counsel from your area of interest and expertise.

This is an exciting time in Sacramento and an equally exciting opportunity to be engaged in the creation of the Aggie Square project and process. We are grateful for your participation, and look forward to embarking on this journey with you.

Best regards,
